

PROGRAM

Thursday, 19

9,00 h. Welcome

9,15 h. "What is systematicity?", Brian McLaughlin (Rutgers, US)

-----
10,30 h. Coffee break

11,00 h. "Explaining systematicity in the extended, embodied mind", Alicia Coram (U. Melbourne, Australia)

11,50 h. "One to rule them all? Situated cognition, dynamical systems theory, and the systematicity challenge", Lena Kästner and Leon de Bruin (Ruhr-University Bochum, Germany)

12'40 h. "The systematicity challenge to antirepresentational dynamicism? A way out (please) of the never ending systematicity loop", Victor Verdejo (UAB, Spain)

13,30 h. Lunch break
 -----

15,30 h. "Systematicity and multimodality: some ground-level problems for anti-representationalism", Bence Nanay (U. Antwerp/U. Cambridge, Belgium/UK)

-----
16,15 h. Coffee break
 -----

16,30 h. "The explanatory value of some post-connectionist models", Jason Noble (U. Southampton, UK), Eric Silverman (U. Southampton, UK) and Manuel de Pinedo García (U. Granada, Spain)

Friday, 20

9,15 h. "Systematicity and Interaction-Dominant Dynamics", Tony Chemero (Franklin & Marshall Colg., US)

-----
10,30 h. Coffee break
 -----

11,00 h. "Grounding systematicity at the sensorimotor level: an ecological approach to sensory substitution", David Travieso, David Jacobs and Lorena Lobo (UAM, Spain)

11,50 h. "Systematicity of what? Towards a systematicity of habits", Xabier Barandiaran (CNRS, France)

12'40 h. "Dynamics, systematicity and extended cognition", Michael Silberstein (Elizabethtown Colg./UMD, US)

13,30 h. Lunch break

15,30 h. "Categorical compositionality: a category theory explanation for systematicity", Steve Phillips (AIST, Japan)

-----
16,45 h. Coffee break
 -----

17,00 h. "Exploring the neural basis of systematicity with category theory", Jaime Gómez, Ricardo Sanz and Manuel G. Bedia (U. Politécnica Madrid, Spain)

-----
20'30 h. WORKSHOP DINNER
 -----

Saturday, 21

10,15 h. "Can representationalist versions of extended cognition coherently answer to the systematicity challenge?", Pierre Steiner (FNRS/U. Cat. Louvain, Belgium)

-----
11,00 h. Coffee break
 -----

11,30 h. "Systematicity and conceptual pluralism: how to pay classicism with the same (argumentative) coin", Fernando Martínez-Manrique (U. Granada, Spain)

12,15 h. "The post-connectionist era: tough times to be talking systematicity", Ken Aizawa (Centenary Colg., US)
